GARUDA INDONESIA (GA)

Featured airline Garuda Indonesia has served as Indonesia's national airline for more than 70 years. Based in Jakarta, its network connects some of the biggest economies in Southeast Asia, the Middle East, Europe, Australia and various exotic domestic destinations across the archipelago of Indonesia. GA has an extremely modern fleet of over 140 aircraft and a distinctive service concept celebrating Indonesian hospitality. Skytrax has consistently awarded GA five stars, and the carrier has also won awards for on-time performance, 'The Best Airline in the World' (top 10), and 'The World's Best Cabin Crew.'

PRECISION AIR (PW)

Backed by 30+ years of experience, Precision Air is one of the most reputable and reliable airlines in East Africa. Founded in 1993, it started as a private charter service ferrying tourists from Arusha, Tanzania, to the Serengeti National Park and Ngorongoro Crater. Kenya Airways (KQ) acquired a 49% stake in the business in 2003. Today, Precision Air's headquarters are in Dar es Salaam, and its main base is at the city's Julius Nyerere International Airport. KQ still owns 41% share, while PW's network has grown to include a range of destinations, including Zanzibar, Kilimanjaro, Nairobi, Dodoma, Kahama, Mbeya, Mtwara, Tabora, Mwanza, and Seronera (Serengeti National Park). PW also operates charter and cargo services.

Destinations to go wild about!

AirlinePros registers keen demand at ITB Berlin

AirlinePros' global executive management team and senior business development partners looking after the USA, Europe, and the UK gathered in Germany early March for the 2024 edition of ITB Berlin.

The team was there to showcase AirlinePros' range of solutions and innovations for the airline, travel, and hospitality sectors, and they relished the opportunity to partake in ITB's many networking and learning events.

Some of the dominant themes of this year's event program included potential applications of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in travel.

In a post-show report, organisers reported an overwhelming sense of optimism from attendees and predicted a positive next six months of trading.
