INTERCARIBBEAN AIRWAYS (JY)

International travel to the Caribbean shows no signs of slowing down in 2024 and is being driven by wallet-friendly destinations (see our report in News and Events below) as well as the T20 Cricket World Cup tournament in June. For your customers, interCaribbean Airways offers quick and convenient travel to the UK market's favourite islands. An interline agreement with British Airways also offers seamless connectivity and through baggage check-in on flights to and from the UK. See Agent's Corner for details about JY's Cacique Rewards programme.

PNG AIR (CG)

Navigate new waters, tribal villages, and nature trails in Papua New Guinea (PNG) confidently with PNG Air. The airline's growing fleet of ATR 72-600 aircraft, the ideal spec for PNG's terrain, safely connects travellers with most major towns, cities, and smaller villages via Port Moresby. From World War II ruins to immersive diving, ocean, river, and cultural experiences, travellers can immerse themselves in 'One Million Different Journeys'. The airline's striking livery also reflects PNG's rich and exotic tribal influences!

interCaribbean Airways will restart scheduled flights between Providenciales and Port-au-Prince, Haiti (PAP) on June 11, 2024.

Papua New Guinea tourism partners are joining forces to grow arrivals and raise awareness about the destination domestically and internationally.

Caribbean island hotels that are more 'wallet-friendly' are outperforming the luxury segment this year, based on results published in MasterCard's new 2024 Travel Trends report.
