About Norse Atlantic Airways

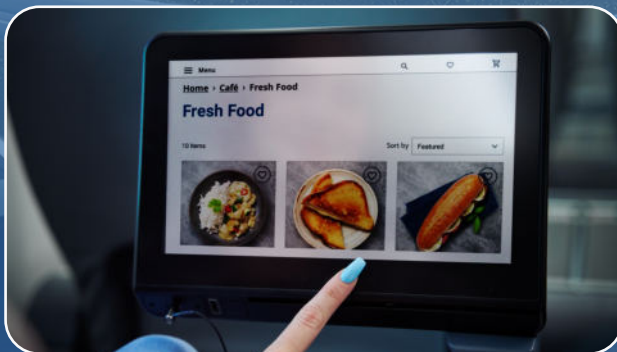

Established in 2021, Norse Atlantic Airways is a long-haul affordable airline based in Arendal, Norway that aims to make travel more accessible. Committed to superior customer service and competitive pricing, it operates a modern fleet of Boeing 787-9 Dreamliners, connecting major cities like London, New York, Rome, Athens, Paris, and Berlin. With multiple ticket options that cater to both budget-savvy and premium travelers, all passengers aboard Norse Atlantic Airways enjoy a range of amenities including high-speed Wi-Fi, an extensive entertainment system, and a menu inspired by Nordic cuisine.

Classes of Travel

Economy

282 seats in a spacious 3-3-3 layout, offering passengers the perfect balance between capacity and comfort, in a way typical of the Dreamliner's wide-body design.
