AIRLINEPROS DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Dominican Republic, occupying the eastern portion of Hispaniola, is a land of striking contrasts, from the Caribbean's tallest peak, Pico Duarte, to its largest lake, Lake Enriquillo. Its diverse geography spans lush mountains, tropical beaches, and arid deserts. Culturally, the nation reflects a rich blend of Taíno, African, and Spanish heritage, seen in its music—merengue and bachata—and cuisine, featuring dishes like sancocho and mangú. Spanish is the official language, and Roman Catholicism remains the predominant faith.
