MARKET SNAPSHOT: DEMAND, ROUTES, AND OUTLOOK

Canadian airlines are pivoting, seeking growth in high demand markets in Europe, Asia and Latin America as well as in long haul leisure and VFR markets. Read Chief Commercial Officer Fadhila Boutalbi's full market overview to learn which routes and partners - including ITA Airways, SKY express, Loganair and Oman Air - are opening fresh opportunities for agents and how to turn these network pivots into bookable itineraries.

AGENT'S CORNER

- We've welcomed another new airline partner on board - LIFT (GE) from South Africa, operating between Cape Town, Johannesburg and Durban.
- Air Senegal (HC) - A new codeshare partnership with Turkish Airlines (TK) enhances connectivity across both carriers' networks.
- Loganair (LM) - Now operates 3x weekly flights between Jersey (JER) and Paris Charles de Gaulle (CDG); launching twice-weekly flights between Jersey (JER) and Bordeaux (BOD) on June 19.
- Oman Air (WY) has started its new Muscat-Singapore service with 3x weekly flights - an exciting and useful new Gulf-Asia corridor that gives agents new packaging and routing opportunities between the Middle East and Asia, with competitive premium and value offerings in Business and Economy class.
